

A.C.E.S. – Alliance for Community Education Series

A.C.E.S. WORKSHOP / SEMINAR:
"TOUGH GUISE: Exploring How Society Socializes Boys in a Manner that Contributes to a Culture of Violence"

Presenter: *Evan Graber, Ph.D. – Licensed
Clinical Psychologist, Director of Outpatient Services for Y.O.U., Inc.

This workshop is a depiction of the manner in which we socialize boys to become men in our society (including media influences) contributes to a culture of violence, and what we can do about it. The target audience is men--fathers, grandfathers, even adolescent boys--but women and teen girls will certainly learn something, as well. All parents, educators, and other child-care professionals are encouraged to attend.

Date: Wednesday, October 5, 2005
Location: *Media Center, Floral Street School, 57 Floral Street, Shrewsbury, MA 01545
Time: 6:30pm – 8:30pm

Objective:

The objective of A.C.E.S. : Alliance for Community Education Series (sponsored by Shrewsbury Youth & Family Services) is to offer quality educational programming designed to enhance awareness, improve skills, and expand knowledge with regards to important social and emotional issues within the community. ACES is facilitated in collaboration with other community organizations, including Shrewsbury PTO's, Shrewsbury Community Partnership for Children (SCPC), Shrewsbury Child Development Committee (SCDC), ADVISE (Against Domestic Violence in Shrewsbury Education project), and others. Future Workshops will include important information on Social/Emotional Development, Divorce and Remarriage Issues, Parenting Skills, and more. Please contact SYFS or watch "Youth & Family Forum" on Shrewsbury Media Cable Access for future times, dates, and locations.

Who Should Attend:

Families, Educators, Coaches, Doctors, Counselors, Child Care Providers, All other community members

-The workshop admission fee is $5, free childcare is provided for certain workshops. Contact SYFS for details.

-To pre-register and secure seating at this workshop and childcare availability, attendees may call Joan Frissora at (508)-845-6932 or email scs1@townisp.com . It is not necessary to pre-register, but seating and childcare is limited.